Powerwrap platform users recognised as Australia's top financial advisers

Powerwrap today congratulated Scott Carmichael and Thomas Murphy from Escala Partners, and Will Hamilton from Hamilton Wealth Management, for being named the top financial advisers in Australia.

The trio were named in the inaugural Top 50 Financial Advisers in Australia list compiled for The Australian newspaper's magazine, The Deal, by US publication Barron's. The rankings are based on assets managed, revenue produced and quality of practice.

Scott Carmichael of Escala Partners was named the top financial adviser in Australia. Scott has been using the Powerwrap platform since Escala's inception in 2013. His clients include high net worth individuals and their families.

Will Hamilton of Hamilton Wealth Management came in second on the list. Will is a 32-year industry veteran and has been using the Powerwrap platform for several years. Will provides bespoke advisory services to his clients, with a strong emphasis on risk management.

Thomas Murphy from Escala Partners was named fourth. Thomas is a recent addition to the Escala team and is based in Sydney.

Powerwrap Chairman Matthew Driscoll said, "We are delighted that Scott, Will and Thomas have been recognised for delivering superior service to their clients.

"Powerwrap is pleased to deliver the platform solutions and services that are critical to the success of financial advisers and their clients. We will keep listening and innovating to meet their needs."
